WHO IS O'RIAN

O'Rian Moore is a rising music artist known for blending raw emotion, Southern soul, and bold ambition into every lyric and performance. Based in Huntsville, Alabama, O'Rian's artistry is rooted in authenticity — capturing the grind, growth, and glow-up of a young creative finding his voice and building his own lane.

With a unique sound shaped by personal experience, late-night studio sessions, and a deep connection to his community, O'Rian uses music as a message: stay focused, stay consistent, and never let the world define your worth. Whether he's performing, designing merch, or creating digital content, O'Rian brings passion, vision, and a hustle that resonates with dreamers everywhere.

Now preparing for his debut live show, O'Rian & Friends: Live on the Mountain, he's inviting sponsors, supporters, and fans alike to be part of a powerful moment — not just for his career, but for the culture he's building.

ABOUT THE CONCERT

GOALS & OBJECTIVES

CELEBRATE AND SUPPORT LOCAL MUSICAL TALENT

BUILD SUSTAINABLE OPPORTUNITIES FOR INDEPENDENT ARTISTS

OFFER INCLUSIVE AND AFFORDABLE
ENTERTAINMENT TO THE HUNTSVILLE
COMMUNITY

ENGAGE COMMUNITY SPONSORS AND PARTNERS IN SUPPORTING THE LOCAL ARTS

Local singer-songwriter O’Rian Moore is proud to present his first independent concert, Voices on the Mountain. Known for his soulful vocals and compelling stage presence, O’Rian has built a name for himself across Huntsville and surrounding areas. This fall, he returns with a special evening of live music, accompanied by fellow local artists and friends; Dyahlván Harris, Rachelle Shire, and Mil Music, set against the stunning backdrop of Burritt on the Mountain.

This concert is more than a performance—it’s a celebration of community, artistry, and collaboration. Attendees will enjoy great music, delicious food from a local food truck, and drinks from a cash bar—all under the stars.
